RANSOM LOOTS THE CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE.

HE SPENDS TWO HOURS IN SECRET CONFERENCE AT DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS AND LEAVES TOWN HURRIEDLY WITH "SOAP" AND "GREASE" GALORE.

He Insists That the Democrats Will Win and That the "Old Man" Will Pull Through Just Once More. His Vanity is Mistaken for Dotage. Among His Visitors Who Was Conspicuous by his Absence Was That "Damned Allianceman," Dr. Sanderlin. He is Being Urged to Take the Stump Against Ransom, but is Waiting to Hear Some Denial of his Statement Published in The Caucasian--False Counting in the Black Districts Saves the Democratic Party in Georgia. Populists Denied Representation at the Polls, and Cheating Was Easy. All the Same the Democratic Majority is Reduced From 71,000 to 10,000. Result Demoralizes Washington Democrats, who now Concede the Loss of the Next House--The Landslide is on.

(Special to The Caucasian.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.

Senator Bansom spent two hours at Democratic headquarters yesterday in confidential communication with chairman Faulkner. When he left the city last night it's understood that he was well "greased" and "soaped." He "looted" the campaign committee and, like the horse leech, wanted more. This unexpected raid together with the Democratic "slump" in Georgia gives a blueish tinge to the crisp October air at Democratic headquarters.

RANSOM DEMORALIZED.

From what he says, from what he does'nt say, from his manner, from the wearied, listless, languid, peavish way he talks about the campaign the conclusion is obvious that he is badly demoralized. He said privately and at headquarters that the Democrats would carry the State. He would not discuss majorities, but said with significant emphasis, "it will take mighty hard work to save the legislature." The congressional districts, he thinks, are in less danger. But to quote him literally, "nothing is safe or certain" at this time. Yet Democratic defeat does'nt seem possible; still nobody can tell."

"THE OLD MAN SAFE."

Stretched on a bed at Metropolitan, after a serious talk with Josephus Daniels, he spoke hopefully of his own election. "They can't beat the old man this time—not this time—just once more," he said. "My campaign is not a satisfactory one to me, my speeches are not up to what they have been or to what they ought to be, but Dr. Kingsbury, the brilliant editor and critic says my Wilmington speech was the greatest effort he ever heard. He has heard all the great orators—including my young and talented friend, Walter Henry. I guess my speeches are all right. They'll do maybe for an old man nearly seventy years old."

VAIN AND CHILDISH.

"Ransom talks, said one of his visitors, as if he were in dotage always vain, he is positively childish in much of his talk. One is impressed by what he says with the idea that defeat will crush him and break his heart." Further than the observation that Jarvis had a good many friends in the State he declined to speak of the personal contest between them. He did say, however, upon being pressed that "Mr. Jarvis will find very cold comfort in the western counties." His eye brightens at the mention of "the western reserve," where such splendid work has been accomplished for him by the revenue office-holders. The one subject, however, that arouses him is

THE POPULIST PARTY.

He throws dyspepsia, heart failure and early Sunday School training to the dogs and fills the air with blue sulphur and hot-smelling brimstone. It takes a man of iron nerve to introduce the topic the second time in his presence. So obnoxious is the matter to him that he made no inquiries of Joe Daniels about his protege, Dr. Sanderlin. In the treasury reorganization the "damned Allianceman" has got $500 added to his annual income. He was conspicuous among those who did not call on Senator Ransom and proffer a check for campaign purposes. He feels keenly the necessity that put it in Ransoms power to insult him and through him every Allianceman in North Carolina. He has made many influential friends in the City and among departmental officials.

URGED TO TAKE THE STUMP.

The publication in The Caucasian of Ransoms insulting language to him, when he said, without provocation or excuse, "you, sir, belonged to that damned farmers Alliance and you've got more than you deserve," has brought to him hundreds of letters urging him to take the stump in North Carolina and make an open and aggressive fight against Ransom. From all parts of the State are received daily letters asking for some denial or confirmation of the story. These inquiries comes in unanswered, awaiting some denial from Senator Ransom or his friends. The statement printed in The Caucasian will not be denied. It can be easily verified.

GEORGIA SLASHES DEMOCRACY.

Only by false counting in the black districts has the Georgia oligarchy been saved from complete destruction. An honest count of the votes would have resulted in a splendid Populist victory. As it is the result has produced constina-

HAS JARVIS SURRENDERED?

THE "VISITING STATESMAN" MEETS A SOLID PHALANX OF RANSOM OFFICE HOLDERS.

He Shows Signs of Dismay and Demoralization.

AND THE WHISPERED, CONFIDENTIAL TALK IS THAT HE IS READY TO WITHDRAW FROM THE CONTEST IN THE "INTEREST OF HARMONY."

His Eastern Support, the Ransom Men say, is Half-hearted and Will Abandon Him for Ransom at the First Signal of Party Distress—How the West uses the County Government Club on the East.

(Special to The Caucasian.)

ASHEVILLE, Sept. 28.—An Eastern man in this "Land of the Sky" has unerringly discovered that the vitality, vigor, brains, organization, spirit of the Democratic party is in the West. Major Stedman apprehended this when he made Asheville his home. There are no factions in the Democratic party in this section of the State. Disagreement here means revolt and fight. Every vote is counted as it is cast. These people love liberty, justice and fair play. They despise the

in politics. They will follow any courageous man who has the honesty and grit to defy it. They despise cowardice and deception. Hesitation and apology they accept as weakness and dishonesty. Senator Jarvis' railroad policy as Governor, made him a hero with these people. They did not inquire into

HIS MOTIVE.

What they wanted was a railroad. All they cared to know was that Jarvis was chiefly instrumental in its consummation. That has been the people's attitude towards him. The politicians and managers have always been opposed to him. Ransom has been their ideal. He is the office-getter. He makes appointments a family matter. He is lucky in striking the right chord. Elias appointment as Collector was a mistake. Elias is a Jew, a money-lender, a mortgage-confiscator; it was Ransom's mistake, not Vance's, that compelled Elias to withdraw his nomination and resign the Collectorship.

RANSOM FORSAW

it all. He knew how it would end. He knew it would end before any damage was done. Hence he made no opposition to the appointment and was made supremely happy when Elias resigned—according to understanding. The present incumbent, Mr. Carter, was the original favorite with Ransom. He was assurred of the change that was afterwards made, which transferred the commission

FROM ELIAS TO CARTER.

It was known here, I am told, that Carter, long before the change was made, was preparing to assume the responsibilities of the office. Knowing all this no mam in this section of the State is more servile to Ransom than Mr. Elias. He is thus attached and identified as a matter of self-preservation. If Ransom goes down Elias goes down. He is candidate on that platform, and has gone to New York to beg for campaign funds to vindicate Mr. Cleveland, it is said.

THE GUDGER FAMILY

furnishes another illustration of servility to Federal patronage. After his involuntary retirement from the bench, Judge Gudger made a complete failure in his effort to make a living at the practice of law. He was very poor and needy when Ransom discovered that General Ulysses Hampton, who had been designated for appointment in Washington, was a brigadier-general in Holden's militia during the Kirk insurrection. The discovery resulted in Gudger's appointment.

IT DIDN'T COUNT

however, so far as the Gudger family is concerned. Hezekiah is the politician in the family. Besides, he is Vance's executor. Besides, he didn't like Ransom. Besides, he threathened to join the Republican or Populist party to beat him if necessary. Besides, he was poor and in debt. But why not end the story? He is now in Washington wearing russet shoes and is the loudest-lunged Ransom cuckoo there—if what is heard here is half way true.

IN THIS WAY

powerfully supplemented by the office holders, has the Western counties been made solid for Ransom. When Jarvis arrived here last night, after desultory and disheartening tour from Salisbury by way of Statesville, Hickory and Lenoir, he looked hacked and worn. He was the deliverer of these people from commercial and industrial bondage. But as a candidate against the machine he gets only a perfunctory shake of the hand and a very formal, freezing howdy-do.

HE NOW REALIZES

what the Federal office holders have done for Ransom in the Western counties. He now appreciates the condition that compelled Ransom to trade silver for patronage. He has met here a solid phalanx of Ransom office holders, and as he journeys westward he will find it in his front

HILL MEANS MACHINE POLITICS.

A REVOLT AGAINST HIS NOMINATION THAT MEANS HIS ANNIHILATION IN NOVEMBER.

PUBLIC SENTIMENT THREATENS HIS CANDIDACY WITH SWIFT AND TERRIBLE RETRIBUTION—HIS NOMINATION THE RESULT OF A DEEP LAID SCHEME.

The Vest Pocket Vote in the Senate That Contributed to its Consummation---Public Sentiment Rapidly Crystalizing Against Dishonest Elections---The Demand For a Fair Election, an Honest Count, and Equal Representation on the Board of Election Managers---Until Enforced Southern Elections Will Continue to be a Farce.

[Special to The Caucasian.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Hill, the Ishmadite and "traitor" of a short month ago, is to-day the accepted and acclaimed leader of the New York Democracy. He voted against the Democratic tariff bill in defiance of party caucus. He was denounced on the floor of the Senate as a "renegade" and "traitor" by Democratic leaders. He was refused participation in Democratic caucuses. He was shunned, ridiculed, denounced, despised. Senator Ransom bluntly denied the request of a constituent for an introduction to Senator Hill. "What do you take me for," he said with some show of indignation; "introduce a gentleman to that d—— d——?" Hill's name was execrated in the Senate. His face was slapped by Senator McPherson, and Senator Blackburn denounced him in the hearing of Senators as 'a d—d traitor to the Democratic party." He was friendless and nameless.

A DEEP LAID SCHEME.

He was wiser than the leaders who abused and derided him. It was his prediction that the Democratic party would be at his feet imploring him to save it within 60 days from the adjournment of congress. He could defy a Democratic caucus with impunity. He was master of the situation. The one vote necessary to pass the tariff bill he carried in his vest pocket. The income tax was ground of his implacable opposition to the bill. Senator Smith was just as vehement in his opposition to the income tax, but he yeilded. Hill did not yeild because he could vote against it and pass the bill at the same time. The advantage he possessed was that he owned and controlled one vote beside his own. The construction of the bill favored his scheme. It would have been defeated by the votes of the two Louisiana Senators, but for the intervention of Hill's pocket vote. Five minutes before the crisis developed Hill's vest pocket vote was solemnly pledged to vote against the bill. It came that made defeat. Hill prevented it, and then was laid the wires that made him the nominee of the Saratoga convention by acclamation. A Southern Senator who maintained the most intimate and confidential relations with Hill, observed, incidently, to your correspondent, "Hill will be the Democratic candidate for Governor in New York and you will see the biggest row that has ever been known in American politics. He is playing a deep game and it takes a desperado in politics to play it." This was not conjecture. The Senator who made the observation was the Senator whose vote made the consummation of the scheme possible.

Thus far the game has been successfully played. His mutiny and treason have been condoned. He is the recognized leader of the Democratic party. Instead of scoffs and jeers and derision it is adulation, supplication. The Democratic party in New York is at his feet The "traitor" and "peanut politician" is its declared savior. The spectacle is pitiful. It involves a woeful prostitution of American manhood. In its wanton repudiation of all decency, principle and self-respect, the acceptance of Hill's leadership, under the circumstances, challenges comparison with the most flagrant and disgraceful episode in American politics.

HIS ELECTION IMPOSSIBLE.

His election is an impossibility. His personality is the issue. The bold and defiant bid for the Presidential nomination in 1896 will destroy him. The purification of State and municipal politics in New York demands his annihilation. There was never a better opportunity for striking a blow at "bossism" and corruption than is now offered in New York. Hill is the embodiment of all that is dangerous and corrupt in politics. Behind him stands Tammany Hall, the most corrupt and dangerous political organization in existence; the machine built up by "boss" Murphy, as chairman of the Democratic State committee; every member of a ward "gang" like Shea, who sent a ball crashing through the brain of Robert Ross in Troy last April because he dared to stand up for honest elections, and forty-nine out of fifty toughs, criminals and liquor sellers in the State.

It is a matter of profound interest to every lover of pure politics and good government that this combination should be defeated and defeated ignominiously. The election protest of last year when the ballot box thief, Maynard, was defeated by 100,000 majority has been lost on the Democratic "bosses." They imagine that popular indignation has blown over. But the gathering storm and mutterings of popular wrath are evident to be mistaken.

The Democratic Party and the Colored Voter.
The use the machine wants to make of the colored man till after the Election.

The "bosses" have mistaken public opinion. Hill's colossal impudence and daring, his bravado and defiance will be severely rebuked. It is the last of Hill. With his going will follow an era of clean politics. Public conscience will take the place of the political "boss." Out of this condition will grow

HONEST ELECTIONS.

The long immunity from crimes on the suffrage in the Southern States illustrates the demoralized condition of public sentiment and demands radical measures for its correction. Revolt against machine rule and bossism means nothing against dishonest election methods.

THE LOUISIANA REVOLT.

The leaders of the Democratic revolt in Louisiana early discovered their helplessness and hopelessness of the situation in that State. Without a fair election and an honest count their efforts are meaningless. They begin the fight with a demand for "a fair election and an honest count and return of the votes cast, and we expect at the hands of the Chief Executive of the State to see that we have a fair representation on all boards of registration and election."

About the same heed will be given this demand as was given the Populist demand in North Carolina. The Louisiana situation may not be so hopeless. The New Orleans Times-Democrat has frequently admitted the gross nature of the frauds perpetrated on the suffrage in Louisiana, and demanded a radical reform in election methods. In the same number of the Times-Democrat that contained the account of the planters' meeting is said editorially that "the sugar situation is unpromising, but it will not be improved by fraudulent registration, ballot box stuffing and false counting."

The election frauds in North Carolina in 1892 were so gross that no attempt has been made to deny or extenuate them. It is certain that it is the intention of the Democratic managers to resort to the same methods in 1894 that were so successfully employed in 1892. The strength of the opposition and the great stakes involved in the election demand it.

PUBLIC SENTIMENT

condemns it. Public morality rebukes it. Public conscience revolts at it. It will not be practiced again with the same exemption from punishment and retribution that characterized the election of two years ago. Repeated and defiant abuses have made honest elections an issue of profound interest and significance in other States.

A large public meeting of white Democrats was held in Cobb County, Ga., to take action in respect to securing a fair vote and an honest count. Speechas were made and resolutions passed demanding that repeating must stop; that all parties shall have representation on election boards, and that good order shall be preserved at the polls. The object of the meeting was endorsed by the Atlanta Constitution, which says that "our Government rests upon the ballot, and when it becomes a dishonest ballot our institutions are in danger of being destroyed." A similar publec sentiment is visible in Florida, where fraud on the suffrage has reached such proportions that the Jacksonville Times-Union, the leading Democratic newspaper in the State, quotes without dissent a prominent Democrat as saying that "it would be a recommendation to a man in Florida to charge him with fraud on the ballot."

BEGINNING OF THE END.

It is eighteen years ago since a shotgun campaign was systematically begun in the South against the black vote. Ex-Senator Eustis, who is now American Minister at Paris, and Governor McEnery, who is now a Judge in Louisiana, boasted on the stump a few years ago how "Fred Cann's cannon and Captain Theobald's rifle clubs" had shot down the colored voters in that State in the campaign of 1876. Cheating was found to be cheaper than killing, however, and the false counter took the place of the shotgun. The day of the false counter is passing, and the next and last resort is bribery. Hugh T. Inman, a prominent Democrat of Georgia, asserts that he was called upon recently to subscribe to "a fund to be spent in controlling the negro vote for the Democratic candidate for Governor."

The Southern revolt against the Democratic party is lead by an element that will not submit much longer to election frauds and the purchase of the colored vote is the only alternative left the machine managers. In this connection it is a suggestive fact—entitled to passing observation, that while the Democrats are constantly reviling the colored people and seeking to make it appear that the colored race is not worthy of the ballot they are always ready to purchase the negro vote when they cannot intimidate it.

The Democratic majority in Georgia this week will demonstrate the advantage of adding bribery to cheating.

REFORM WILL WIN IN CATAWBA.

The Peoples Party Gaining Many Votes.--Capt. Kitchin doing Good Work.

HICKORY, N. C., Oct 6.

Editor CAUCASIAN:—Our people are encouraged over the gains we have made in Georgia. It will increase our vote in North Carolina 10,000. The co-alition ticket will win in Catawba. The town rings are sick. They almost cry when you call their attention to how the Democrats are losing everywhere. Some of the best men in this county, preachers and teachers, are leaving the rotten and sinking bark of Democracy. Our post master wrote to the Raleigh News and Observer, saying that the Pops in Catfish, in this county, were going back to the Democrats. He lied and knew it when he said it Not a single one in that section has left.

Capt. Kitchin's speech here converted some of our best men. Maj. J. T. Hall is very sick at how his cherished party has done. He is a Populist at heart but hasn't the courage of his convictions.

The machine has given it up, that Whitener will defeat their candidate, Wilfung, for the Legislature, and perhaps their entire ticket will be defeated. When our best teachers and preachers, as they are, get their eyes open, we pity the boys. Our boys are just waiting and watching for this class, or a few to come to us, then we will say farewell to the ballance. If they can survive without the people, the people can live without them

Some of our merchants, doctors, preachers, teachers and lawyers are seriously thinking and the people watching them with open arms.

We say hurrah for Georgia, North Carolina and Catawba FREEDOM.

GLENN AT GOLDSBORO.

THIS BIG DEMOCRATIC GUN DISCHARGED A HEAVY LOAD OF POWDER BUT THAT'S ALL---NOBODY HURT.

He takes his Brethren to be Wanting in Ordinary Horse Sense and Utterly Lacking of any Intelligence.--His Raving Malice to the Opposition was Maniacal--But his Discourse upon the Whole Would be Criticized as Cheek Vs. the Ridiculous.

Bob Glenn was on hand to furnish the eloquence to the Democratic county convention held in Goldsboro last Saturday. Mr. Glenn ventilated himself for more than two hours, and to report his speech at all we can only give our readers a brief digest of all this conspicuous gentleman took occasion to eloquence. In so doing we confer a favor upon the speaker, as no pen would undertake to put his speech as malicious and ridiculous as was delivered. We cannot but believe that if Mr. Glenn were to see that speech in print he would blush and hang his head in shame, though he may never have done so before. The following report will give you some idea of the contempt the speaker has for public intelligence.

THE SPEECH.

He took for his text that the Democrats had redeemed all their pledges. He said they have given the people an honest and economical administration and the best tariff law ever passed by any congress. It is a reduction on the necessities of life with an income tax—just as the Populists wanted. He says it is true that they put a tax on sugar which was free under the Republicans but that a half dozen traitors to the party are responsible. He said that "if all the Democratic Senators had stood up for the demands of the people as did Ransom and Jarvis sugar would have remained on the free list."

He acknowledged that they did not give the people the free coinage of silver, but that this was due to an honest difference of opinion as to the best means to secure bimetalism with justice to both metals. President Cleveland is a friend of silver, but he thinks we must have an international agreement to do justice to both gold and silver. The House thought different. This is the way things now stand. With the concurrence of political developments the Democrats will give the people free coinage of silver.

The Republicans are and always have been the friend of plutocracy. The Populists advocate paternalism. They would destroy capital in the interest of labor. The Democrats stand as a medium between these two extremes in the interest of everybody. It is the great exponent of the people, with "equal rights to all and special privilege to none." Yet, he says, the Populists call the Democrats traitors! His reply to this charge was thus: "How can they be traitors who faced the cannon four years and felt the sting of the bullet in the defence of their country, &c."

The Republican party's intolerable legislation in the interest of capital and plutocracy came near ruining the country and brought the Democratic party into power by an overwhelming majority to save the country, which they have done. On the other hand if the People's party was to get into power they would also ruin the country by their wild and crazy schemes of paternalism and ruinous legislation in the interest of idle and indolent labor. In 18 months a half dozen of them introduced bills to appropriate $35,500,000,000, which is more money than there is in the world. Peffer and Davis of their men are in favor of a direct land tax which would cause the poor, land poor, farmer to pay all the taxes while the capitalists would not bear any of the burden.

The Populists have been deluded by hungry office seekers. The unholy alliance between the Populists and Republicans was a trade by their leaders to get offices. They have no principles and the people have found it out and are fast returning to the Democratic party which is the only friend the people have.

He told the people how vile the federal electien laws were, and how much credit the Democratic party deserves for repealing them. That we now have and always have had honest elections in this State. That this cry of election frauds simply portrays their weakness and is a sure sign of their defeat.

If the unholy alliance of the opposition were to win we would have a rehearsal of the godless crimes and lawlessness and disgrace this State went through in the blood curdling days of '68 and '69.

He stated that he did receive a letter from Mr. Cleveland during the last campaign in reply to an inquiry as to his position on silver, and that the answer was as he then stated on the stump. Cleveland is an earnest friend of silver but he believes there must be an international monetary agreement to do justice to both metals. Cleveland is a zealous exponent of the people's rights and has given them an honest and economical administration. When he went out the first time he left the vaults full of money which he had accumulated by rigid economy to defray public expenses and to save the people of their money. The Democrats only can be trusted with the affairs of this great government."

The above we suppose is a fair sample of the Democratic speeches that are being made all over North Carolina to-day. In fact it must be above the average Democratic speeches, for we have heard that the "machine" considers Glenn one of its right bowers. But it may be that the machine is pleased with Mr Glenn's speeches because he does not attempt to deal in legitimate argument and discussion of issues but because he deals in slanders and statements that are glaringly incorrect and falicious. But let that be as it may the above speech does not need any reply from our hands in these columns. Time and again every statement he made has been proven untrue in The Caucasian. And in fact this very issue of The Caucasian contains sufficient facts, figures and truths to brand every sentence of his harangue from beginning to end.

A DRUMMER AND AN OLD FARMER.

HAVE A TILT ON THE CARS.

THE DRUMMER GETS WORSTED IN A DISCUSSION ON TARIFF AND FINANCE.

The old Farmer Showed the Drummer that Free Raw Materials was against the Farmer and for the Manufacturer---But if there was plenty of Money the People would Prosper under the Meanest Tariff the World ever saw---A Rich and Interesting Discussion.

Editor CAUCASIAN: While on my way to the State Alliance on the 13th of August last, between Selma and Raleigh, I heard a conversation between a commercial drummer and an old farmer.

The drummer, with considerable dignity, asked the old farmer "where are all of these farmers going?" The farmer said, "To the State Alliance."

The drummer replied, "I thought the Alliance was dead."

The farmer said, "Not quite dead."

The drummer said he thought the Alliance was a very good organization until it went into politics.

The farmer remarked that the Alliance did not have to go into politics, it was in politics from the beginning. He told the drummer that in the declaration of purposes of the organization the very first declaration is to labor for the education of the agricultural classes in the science of economical government, in a non-partisan spirit. The farmer said that the farmers were in the science of government without going into politics. Politics is the science of government. The farmer said to the drummer "you see that the Alliance was in politics from the first," to which the drummer made no reply.

The drummer, with a considerable air of dignity, remarked, "Ah, we will settle all this contention very soon. The tariff bill will pass in a few days and that will settle it."

The farmer said, "Yes, that will settle the farmers. If I read the bill right it puts nearly all raw material and farm products on the free list."

The drummer, seeming to have considerable tariff knowledge, said, "But you must remember that all the import duty ever paid on farm products did not amount to a hill of beans."

The old farmer said, "Sir, you are very much mistaken. Before I joined the Alliance I did not know anything about the tariff or much of any thing else about our public affairs. But I have been reading up for the last few years and I am able to tell you positively that you are wrong. Let me give you a fact to disprove your statement. The Dominion of Canada paid in one year, on one article, eggs, duty to the amount of $552,000. That is over half a million dollars."

The drummer looked at the old farmer in astonishment and said, "No, I did not know that."

The old farmer said, "Why, sir, from the 2nd day of March, 1861 to the present time, farm and truck products were protected with duties as follows: Horses and mules valued at $150 pay a duty of $30 per head; if valued over $150 they pay an advalorem duty of 30 per cent; cattle one year old and over, $10 per head; cattle under one year old, $2 per head."

The drummer opened his eyes wider, and "I d-i-d n-o-t k-n-o-w t-h-a-t."

The old farmer continued, "Hay pays a duty of $4 per ton. Broom corn pays a duty of $8 per ton. Hogs $1,50 per head. Sheep, one year old or more, $1 50 per head; less than a year old, 75 cents per head. Barley 30 cents per bushel. Buchwheat, 15 cents per bushel. Corn, 15 cents per bushel. Corn meal, 30 cents per bushel of fifty-six pounds. Oats, 15 cents per bushel. Oatmeal, one cent per pound. Rice, cleaned, two cents per pound. Rye, ten cents per bushel. Rye flour, one-half of one cent per pound. Wheat, twenty-five cents per bushel. Wheat flour twenty per cent ad valorem. Butter and substitutes therefor, six cents per pound. Cheese, six cents per pound. Milk, five cents per gallon. Beans, forty cents per bushel. Peas, forty cents per bushel. Cabbage, three cents a head. Eggs, five cents per dozen. Honey, twenty cents per gallon. Hops, fifteen cents per pound. Onions, forty cents per bushel. Potatoes of all kinds, twenty-five cents per bushel. Bacon and hams, five cents per pound. Beef, Mutton and pork, two cents per pound. Meats of all kinds, prepared or preserved, twenty per cent ad valorem. Lard, two cents per pound. Poultry, live, three cents per pound; dressed poultry, five cents per pound. Tallow, one cent a pound."

At this point the drummer's eyes fell and his under lip dropped, and he said, "I d-i-d n-o-t k-n-o-w t-h-a-t."

The old farmer said, "Sir, you do not seem to know much about the tariff. I will make you a proposition, I will name twenty-five articles and if you will tell me the amount of duty collected, and how it is counted, for every article you are right I will give you one dollar, if you will give me five cents for every article you miss."

"Well," said the drummer, "I think you would make money."

The farmer said "You seem not to know anything about the tariff, and a man ought not to talk about a thing he does not know any thing about."

The crowd commenced au hing, and the drummer at once got up and went to the smoking car. As the drummer left the oldfarmer asked him to stay, saying that he would like to talk finance again with him after they got through with the tariff. But the drummer did not stop. He had started out to stuff the old farmer. but soon found that he had struck the wrong man. Before he tackles another farmer he will first find out if he is an Alliance man.

To this list of protected articles the old farmer could have added

Every voter should see it. It will be a complete answer to the Democratic Hand Book. Every candidate should order at least a hundred and put into the hands of voters.

THE GEORGIA ELECTION.

It has been over a week since the Georgia election and yet no returns or official statements can be had from over half of the counties.

The law says that the election returns shall be consolidated and official statements made out by 12 o'clock on the day after the election.

And yet no returns can be had from a majority of the counties.

About fifty counties are yet to be heard from!

What a great crime has been committed by the men who control? In the Chicago Times appeared a telegram claiming that Atkinson, the Democratic nominee for Governor, had carried the State by 10,000. Other papers all over the Union had the same figures.

One leading Georgia paper put it at 15,000. Another figured at 20,000. Others have been wobbling all the way from 20,000 to 26,000.

What does all this mean?

It means that a great crime, an unprecedented crime of fraud has been perpetrated upon the people of Georgia. A crime that should cause every honest Democrat in the State to hang his head in shame of the disgrace that those who control, that machine ring rule, that the bosses the Democratic registrars and judges of elections have committed gross frauds and downright stealing to save the D. O. P. and count Atkinson in as the Governor of Georgia.

That Hines carried the State and that the returns are held to be doctored to suit the bosses no man who has a balanced and reasoning mind can deny.

In former elections fraud was confined mainly to the theft of election judges.

In this election another and a more monstrous crime has been perpetrated.

The returns at once revealed that the Populist landslide would bring Democratic defeat.

At this point the machine wired to every portion of the State that the returns must be redoctored. That Hines has carried the State and that they must count him out.

And this is why the returns have not been sent in.

A more dastardly crime was never committed, and the western train robber is no bolder with his theft.

It is reported that a few days ago a certain Georgia Judge had the cheek to say synically "If the Populists carry the State do you suppose we are going to let them have it?"

The Populists carried the State without the shadow of a doubt, but the slate was made up the other way—and it appears that the slate is greater than the people.

In 1892 when in all probability an equal amount of fraud was committed in that State the Democrats carried it by about 70,000.

In 1894—only two years—the People's party has according to their fraudulent count made a gain of about 60,000 votes.

These figures tell their own story. Notice has been served upon mossbacks.

It means that the people are tired of five cent cotton, high sugar, no silver and tariff robberies.

If the People's party does this well in North Carolina we will carry the State by 40,000.

And we are going to carry the State just so sure as election day comes if every reformer does his full duty.

THE DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN.

The Democratic campaign in this State is a cowardly repetition of the 1892 campaign. It was a campaign of theft, misrepresentation and deception then. It is a campaign of lying, cowardice and abuse now. The silver plank in the State platform is a lie. It was put there to deceive the people who demand the free coinage of silver. The chairman of the platform committee spewed the declaration from his mouth in announcing the platform to the convention. It was adopted, he said, against his protest, and it was submitted to the convention with that understanding. This was an unprecedented spectacle in a political convention. Two prominent members of the same committee since the adjournment of the convention have publicly declared that bimetallism in this country was dependent on England. That there could be no free coinage without England's consent. That is the goldbug position. It masquerades for bimetallism. It is admitted by the Charlotte Observer, whose editor was chairman of the platform committee that the free coinage declaration of the convention was made for the purpose of winning Populist votes. There is now no concealment about the matter. The declaration is a deception employed to protect the candidacy of the man who voted to repeal the Sherman law. It must be plain to everybody at this time that Ransom's election is the sole aim and object of the Democratic campaign. The Democrats in the State convention who advocated the free coinage plank in the State platform are on the stump in every county in the State urging and advocating Ransom's re-election. Many of them are Ransom candidates for the Legislature,—nominated at the dictation of the Raleigh machine. The man who can be deceived by Democratic protestations of free silver must be a precious, innocent fool, indeed. Ransom's 20 years record in the Senate shows that he has never opened his mouth in behalf of free coinage. It shows that he has never voted for a free coinage bill when there was the possibility of its enactment into law. He says now, in this campaign, "re-elect me and next winter the Democratic congress will pull together and do something in the way of honest financial legislation." He attempts no justification of his vote to repeal the Sherman law. He lacks even the manhood to refer to his allegiance to the administration in its crusade against the people's money. He has never said once or intimated such a thing that he approves the cowardly declaration of the State convention on the silver question. And yet he is the pivot of the campaign. He suggested the policy that controlled the State convention in the matter of a Senatorial primary. He named the State chairman. He disburses the campaign funds. Every federal office-holder in the State, appointed by him, is on the stump in his interest and at his dictation. His re-election is the paramount issue. It is impossible to prevent it except by the election of an anti machine Legislature. His nomination by the Democratic caucus is absolutely certain. The campaign has developed that situation. The scattering opposition will have vanished when the caucus assembles. This will happen in defiance of public sentiment. It will be consummated in the teeth of Democratic protest. Every vote for the Democratic ticket is a vote for Ransom. Every Democratic free coinage vote is a direct endorsement of the administration goldbug policy. Free coinage Democrats cannot delude themselves, in voting for an anti-Ransom candidate, that they are voting for free coinage and against the administration. There will be no anti-Ransom Democrats when the "machine caucus" reports Ransom's nomination to the joint meeting of the Legislature. But the scheme will not work. It is tried covertly here. It is but thinly disguised. It was tried openly and boldly in Georgia last week. By false counting and gross frauds the completeness of the Populist victory may not be realized. But public sentiment has been revolutionized. A great triumph has been achieved. A great principle has been vindicated. An emphatic and commanding declaration in favor of HONEST ELECTIONS has been made. The campaign of boast and abuse and lying has ended in a shameless resort to fraud in counting the vote to save the Democratic party from ignominious annihilation. This victory is of transcendent importance to the reform cause in North Carolina. It proves what may be accomplished by allied opposition to the Democratic party. It demonstrates the necessity of an earnest, aggressive united effort in this State. It shows that public sentiment is crystalizing in the revolt against corrupt, machine politics. It should stimulate every believer in honest politics to a zealous effort in that behalf. It is the beginning of the end. The "machine" in this State will be incited to desperate methods. Every lying device will be exhausted. The old lies will be revarnished. New ones will be invented. The cannona will go on. The EIGHTY-FIVE RAILROAD LAWYERS nominated as Ransom candidates for the Legislature will not falter in their devotion or relax a single effort to perpetuate "machine" domination in the State. But the danger is not there. The arbitrary refusal of Democratic county commissioners to appoint Populist poll holders is notification of election frauds. It means a false count. It means a repetition of the frauds of 1892. This is our danger. See to it "men and brethren."

Send $1.00 and get 100 copies of the second campaign edition of THE CAUCASIAN containing the "People's Party Hand Book."

NOTICE IS SERVED ON YOU.

The action of the County Commissioners in appointing judges of election is notice to the world that the machine intends to commit fraud. The officers of the People's party appeared before the Commissioners in every county and asked for the representation that they were entitled to under the law. They recommended the names of the very best and most competent men to the Commissioners to be poll holders to represent the People's party.

Under the law the Democrats are entitled to a majority of the judges of the election. The officers of the Democratic party select the men to represent that party. The Commissioners always appoint the men recommended by the officers of the Democratic party. This is right, for the executive committee know best what men will represent that party. Then in all fairness and justness the Commissioners should appoint to represent the Peoples Party the men recommended by the officers of the Peoples Party. We challenge any honest man in the State to say that this is not right. But we are receiving reports daily saying that the Commissioners flatly refused to appoint the men recommended by the officers of the Peoples Party for the minority of the Board of Judges of the election. We are also informed that where the officers of the Republican party recommended names that the Commissioners refused to appoint the men recommended.

Who did the Commissioners appoint?

They appointed in nearly every case three Democrats selected by the Democratic machine, and two Republicans (?) selected by the Democratic machine. In nearly every county they entirely ignored the Peoples Party. They not only would not appoint the men that we recommended, but they would not even take any men from the Peoples Party of their own selection.

What is the character of the Democratic poll holders appointed? In those precincts where they intend to cheat, they have selected men whom they can rely on to cheat and swear to false statements.

What is the character of the Republicans appointed? In those precincts where they intend to cheat they have selected for Judges of the election either ignorant and illiterate colored men, or colored men who are Democrats. That is, they hire a colored man to help them to commit fraud. This makes him a good partisan Democrat. Then they tell their hired colored man that he must vote the Republican ticket, so no one will suspect him of being in the pay of the Democratic machine.

What does all this mean? It is notice served on the people that the Democratic machine intends to cheat, steal, commit fraud, swear to false returns, commit perjury, in short do any thing to keep the Democratic machine in power and defraud the will of the people. Will the people of North Carolina submit to it? The Reformers in North Carolina who have revolted against the Democratic machine are a law abiding, God fearing people. They believe in peace and justice. But they will not submit to such injustice and wrong as this. They have as much patrioitsm as their forefathers who threw off the machine, ring rule of Great Britain in 1776. They have enough bravery and manhood to protect their votes which were won by the blood of the Revolutionary heroes. They will have a fair election this year or they will have no election. They will protect their ballots or they will put some Democratic Registrars and Judges of the Election into the Penitentiary, if there is any redress in the courts. Mark this prediction.

A TIMELY ANSWER.

See in another column the reply of Chairman Hollowell of the People's party of Wayne county to Mr. O'Berry, the Democratic candidate. Mr. O'Berry asked for a joint county canvass. Mr. Hollowell replies that the Democratic county commissioners refused to recognize the People's party when it appointed judges of the election, and that now the People's party would refuse to recognize the Democratic party. Mr. Hollowell tells him to have a joint canvass with that class from which they selected the judges of the election. Mr. Hollowell is right. The action of the commissioners shows that they intended to try to carry the election, not by testing the free will of the people, but by shifting and perverting the will of the people. Then why should any party who favors honesty in politics have any thing to do with them?

Are you sure that your name is right on the registration books? If not see your township chairman at once. Don't go to register or to correct your registration by yourself. If you are challenged on the day of election, you must have a witness to testify that you have complied with the law. See your township chairman at once.

A NIGHT-MARE TO THE DEMOCRATIC MACHINE.

The Democratic machine seems to be frightened at the idea of a non-partisan Judiciary. The machine wants the court all made up of one party, and by all means a majority of the court of its sort. But the machine knows that a non-partisan Judiciary is right and that the people approve the idea, so they are trying to divert the people by saying that Judge Faircloth and Judge Furches are partisans. Now for argument sake let us admit that they are partisans. Is it not better to have a court made up of partisans from different parties than partisans all of one party? Partisans of a different party would act as a check and balance to each other. And if there is any one place in the world where we want all sides weighed and viewed it is on the Supreme court bench. The courts sit over the inner sanctuary of the people's liberities. A court made up of partisans all of one party is more dangerous to liberty than large standing armies. If we could get men of integrity and character from different parties none of whom were partisans, this would make an ideal court. We believe that the People's party has come as near to this as possible. The men selected by the Peoples party are men of the highest and purest character and belong to different parties. This makes a safe non-partisan court. This is a just and correct principle. The people will approve it. When once into operation it will stand forever, and this is why it is a night-mare to the machine.

No greater service can be done North Carolina than the election of this court. The Democratic machine was opposed to a Railroad Commission till it was adopted and tried. It was a good thing and then the machine could not oppose it.

The Democratic machine is now opposed to a non-partisan judiciary. It will be adopted. It will prove to be a wise step. Then the machine will be forced to favor it.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

In the last few weeks we have daily received letters about Democratic speakings. Especially we have heard from the speeches of Senators Jarvis and Ransom. Our information is, that they have had only from one to two hundred in any place to hear them, with but few exceptions. Our information is, that all down the C. C. R. R., and up the A. C. L. from Wilmington to Warsaw, that Ransom was very much disappointed at the size of his crowd. His heelers and office holders have always been on hand to greet him, and have tried to explain to their boss why it was the people did not go out to hear him. Our information from a number of other Democratic speakings is, that often only 30 or 40 are out to hear speakers of State reputation when the speakers have been advertised for more than a week. All of this shows that the great masses of the people of North Carolina are thoroughly disgusted with the treachery, hypocracy and perfidy of the Democratic party. It also shows that the masses of the people believe in fair play, and are disgusted at ballot box stuffing and perjury of election officers. In short it means that the people have determined to crush this odious and infamous machine, and are simply waiting for November the 6th to perform the patriotic duty.

Democrats and Republicans have co-operated in Congress for the single gold standard and national banks. Should you not co-operate for fair elections?

Kitchin Captured the Town.

He Inspired Fresh Inthusiasm in the People and Spread Great Consternation in the Ranks of the Democrats.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 5, '94.

EDITOR CAUCASIAN, Dear Sir.:—Uncle Buck Kitchin arrived in the city of Charlotte night before last. At 11 o'clock yesterday morning he spoke in the Court House to a large and enthusiastic audience. He was in good trim and made a telling speech. The enthusiasm among the reformers ran high and every Democrat looked awful sick The Democrats were so uneasy about the effect of this speech that they challenged him for a joint discussion that night in the Court House, and got Mr. C. W. Tillett to reply to him. At seven o'clock the house was crowded until not another man could get in. The Democrats certainly made a mistake in putting this man up to meet Capt. Kitchin. The old Roanoke knocked him out on the first round; and every flimsy argument that he put up for the disgraced old party melted like white frost before a rising sun. Kitchin was at his best, he not only inspired fresh enthusiasm in the people, but he spread still greater consternation in the ranks of the Democrats. When he had finished the Democratic healers, office holders and red legged grass-hoppers looked as if a Cyclone had struck them. Give us one more speech from Capt. Kitchin, and we will not only carry the county of Mecklenburg, but I believe we will capture the city of Charlotte.

KITCHIN IN CLEVELAND.

He Charmed his Audiences.—He Tell's Honest Democrats Where to go to Feel at Home.

Last Wednesday is a day long to be remembered by the Populists of this county on account of the valuable seed that were sown for the cause of reform. It was the occasion of an address in Shelby by the Hon. W. H. Kitchin, who is the present day Patrick Henry of North Carolina.

It was a beautiful day and, although the farmers were very much behind with their work, a good crowd of all political complexions were present to hear this bold and fearless champion of the people's rights. For nearly two hours and a half the speaker held his audience spell-bound by his forcible logic and swaying eloquence. I doubt if any speaker ever had his audience under more perfect control. Those who had heard him speak in his younger days were agreeably surprised to find that a good deal of the fire and sarcasm of his youth had given way to a more persuasive style of reasoning He struck sledge hammer blows at the records of the two old parties for their failure to do their duty, yet he said nothing that was calculated to offend an honest man. He has the courage to condemn whatever he conceives to be wrong, whether it is in his own or in another party.

I would like to give an outline of the speech but it is impossible to do the speaker justice. He showed conclusively that the present depression in business is due to our monetary system; that the only way to restore prices and prosperity is to change the system. He advocates every principle now that he did when in the Democratic party. He did not leave the party, the party left him.

I heard a Democratic speaker say the other day that his party "would like to get rid of all such men as Kitchin." Don't trouble yourselves, gentlemen, such men are too honest to stay with you. They are no longer at home in your ranks. Send them on. They will feel at home in the People's party. Epselon.

A Great Day for the People's Party.

Shuford and Garrett at their Best.—The People have no Ears to Hear Democrats Explain for Five Cent Cotton, No Silver and Tariff Robberies.

TROY, N. C., Oct. 2nd, 1894.

EDITOR CAUCASIAN:—

This has been a great day for the People's party. The Democrats had three speakers and we had two. Congressman Henderson, L. C. Caldwell and old X X Robbins spoke to the dear old party. They begged for another chance, but they got but little applause, and clearly the people were not with them. Our speakers were Mr. A. C. Shuford and Hon. Z. T. Garrett, of Vance county. Mr. Shuford is a candidate for Congress; he made a strong telling speech, but it took Garrett to capture the crowd. In fact we have never seen a man so completely capture his audience and hold them to the end, as Garrett did. He is bright, he is witty, he is entertaining, he tells a joke equal to Zeb. Vance, and puts in his points in a way that tells. He is a vote maker, send him to every place that you can. Two years ago Congressman Henderson told our people that if Cleveland was elected cotton would bring ten cents a pound; he is around now trying to explain why cotton does not bring but five cents, and he is getting very cold comfort from the voters.

Yours very truly,
A Jeffersonian Democrat.

ROCKY MOUNT, Oct. 9.

Editor CAUCASIAN:—The Peoples Party Congressional Convention of the Second District met here to-day. Dr. Person was made permanent chairman.

Dr. H. F. Freeman, M. L. Wood, and Capt. W. H. Kitchin were put in nomination. All names were withdrawn before a ballot but Dr. Freeman and he was nominated by acclamation.

MERRITT AND BYNUM.

Nominated for Congress and Solicitor by The Peoples Party of the Fifth Congressional and Judicial Conventions.

HILLSBORO, Oct. 3.

The Peoples Party Conventions of the Fifth Congressional and Judicial districts met here yesterday. The Congressional Convention nominated Dr. William Merritt, of Person, for Congress, and the Judicial Convention nominated W. P. Bynum, of Guilford, for Solicitor.

"Why Is He So Irritable."

This question is often heard and nearly as often unanswered.

It is not always remembered, as it should be, that the occasion of ill-temper and irritability is often to be found in the physical condition of the persons affected. What is the use of trying to "harmonize" a man whose liver has gone back on him? If a man is tortured with rheumatism, how can he be expected to be affable and agreeable? Can a confirmed dyspeptic be expected to be cheerful and always ready to tell a funny story? The only way to remove the difficulty is to get at the cause. Dyspepsia, rheumatism, impure blood and liver troubles yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla; this is why it is an effective tranquilizer, a peaceful messenger, and a preventive of domestic quarrels.

SMALL CROWDS FOR THE DEMOCRATS

They will not Hear Men who have Betrayed Them into the Hands of the Monopolists and Goldbugs.

Monroe, N. C., Oct. 9th, '94.

EDITOR CAUCASIAN:—

Every Democratic speaker here so far has had very small crowds. On the 4th twenty dollar Robbins spoke, and he had by actual count just 40 men, boys and loafers to hear him. The speaking had been advertised two weeks, and that morning the Democrats got an old negro with long ribbon strings flying from his hat, armed with a bell and banner, and begged everybody to come out and make a crowd but they got all tolled only 140.

When Gen. Ransom spoke here a few weeks ago, the Democrats made a desperate effort to get him a tremendous crowd. They expected two thousand people, but they got only 251, consisting of men, women and children, drummed up mostly from the town to hear him. The people from the country did not come, they don't want to hear any more from these goldbugs who have fooled them once.

To-day Hon. W. H. Kitchin will speak here; the crowd is now coming in. There are already more people in town from the country than have been here to hear every Democratic speaker put together before. The old machine is on its last legs. The People's party is gaining ground daily.

Mr. W. G. Hollowell, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the People's party in Wayne county, wrote the following letter to Mr. O'Berry, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Wayne county, in reply to a request of the latter for a joint canvass of the candidates in the county:

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Oct. 6, '94.

Mr. Nathan O'Berry, Chairman Ex. C m., Dear Sir.—Yours requesting a joint canvass received. For my part I had hoped that your party would so treat us as to warrant us the belief that we had a gallant foe to meet, and to such a foe it would afford me pleasure in extending to its candidates an invitation for a joint discussion of the issues of the day. But we are informed by individuals as well as by the official acts of the Democratic members of the Board of Commissioners that the party that I have the honor to speak for in this county is not recognized as a political party, therefore if you wish a joint discussion you had better confer with the Democratic annex the strait Republicans whom you seem to think are alone intitled to recognition, and to whom you allow poll holders.

Respectfully,
W. G. Hollowell.

The Walter L. Main Shows attracted large audiences at the two performances given here yesterday. The program was extensive and varied and included nearly every feature known to the sawdust arena. The menagerie is a good one. The various performers were artists in their respective specialties and some of them have no superiors. A two year-old African lion riding on the back of a running horse attracted much attention, it being said that this is the only lion ever so trained. A dog performed the same feat with great dexterity, mounting and dismounting the horse while running at full speed. Other dogs as well as the elephants and many of the horses showed themselves to be remarkably well trained. Great feats of strength were executed, while the performances on the trapeze, the equestrian feats, the acts of equilibrists, etc., excited the wonder of all.—Daily Journal.

BELLAMY AND HOOVER

Nominated by the Seventh Senatorial Convention. They are a Strong Team and Will Win The Race.

(Special to THE CAUCASIAN)

NASHVILLE, N. C., Oct. 6.

The People's party convention for the 7th Senatorial district met in Nashville to-day and had a harmonious convention.

The convention was called together and W. S. Bailey was elected temporary and was escorted to the chair by J. T. B. Hoover. After Mr. Bailey stated the object of the convention Mr. J. D. Mears was elected permanent chairman, W. S. Bailey, secretary and J. A. Farmer assistant secretary.

Mr. J. T. B. Hoover was placed in nomination from Wilson county and J. C. Bellamy from Nash, and Mr. J. T. B. Hoover and J. C. Bellamy was nominated by acclamation.

Mr. Bellamy made us a very quiet sensible speech of acceptance and said that he stood squarely on the People's party platform.

Mr. Hoover came forward and made us a fine speech of acceptance and was greatly enjoyed by all.

The Hon. Nat Macon from Franklin county was called for and made us a ringing speech. Though short it was strictly to the point.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. Oct. 8, '94. Dr. Cyrus Thompson, Oscar J. Spears and John J. Shaw met in joint discussion to-day. Dr. Thompson led off in a masterly speech in advocacy of the principles of the People's party. The Dr. was applauded and received a hearty welcome from the people of old Cumberland. Spears followed Dr. Thompson upholding the Republican party. Spears made a forcible speech for the Republican policy.

John G. Shaw then come forward with the same old issue Marion Butler, Cyrus Thompson and the People's party. He failed to answer a single charge made by Dr. Thomson and Spears. He resorted to abuse and vilification. Shaw spoke one hour and fifteen minutes and walked 25 miles during his speech.

John A. Graham, one of the county's best citizens faced John Shaw and told the crowd that Shaw and others were practicing slight of hand stealing of votes in 71st township and the one that proved to be the best expert was the one who would be selected to do the stealing. Shaw said he would vote for a negro if he was nominated by the Democratic party.

It is a certainty that John G. Shaw was nominated by the Democratic party because they were seeking a victim.

Every honest man in Cumberland county will certainly not vote for Shaw with such a record, a man who will practice stealing votes, so that he would be an expert in polluting the ballot box when the election comes. D. C. Dunning.

Walter L. Main's circus presents a clean and attractive appearance, and many compliments are passed concerning it. One of the features of this show that is attracting considerable attention is the fine condition of the horses and other stock is in. It takes 27 cars each 60 feet long to carry this aggregation.

It is important to keep the liver and kidneys in good condition. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for invigorating these organs.

THE DEMOCRATIC SPEAKING IN RUTHERFORDTON.

The People Will Not go Out to Hear the Apologies for Broken Promises and Treachery.

RUTHERFORDTON, N. C., Oct. 6, '94.

Editor CAUCASIAN.—Senator Jarvis was billed to speak here last week; he was sick and got Mr. Adams to take his place. But the crowd came expecting to hear Senator Jarvis, and how many do you suppose came? Only 161 by actual count. Ex-Congressman Robbins was expected to speak here to-day, but it is now two o'clock, and he has not put in appearance, but the crowd came expecting to hear him, and how many do you suppose came? There are exactly six men in town from the country, and I have just heard one of them say that he did not come to hear Robbins speak. The People's party is gaining ground daily. We have a co-operative ticket in this county, and will elect it by a good majority.

THE NEXT CAMPAIGN EDITION

Of THE CAUCASIAN will be Oct 18th. This edition and that edition will contain the complete "People's Party Hand-Book." Be sure to get this edition and that edition into the hands of the voters around you.

THAT FAIR AT MAXTON.

An Agricultural Fair Turned into a Democratic Machine Meeting---The Great Attractions Advertised for Same Are Speeches From Senator Jarvis and Thos. Mason.

This was the case at the Border Exposition of the Carolinas, which holds its Fair at Maxton, Robeson county. Its Secretary calls the Populists by such pet names as "anarchists" and the like through the Maxton department of the Robesonian, but thinks that he can get hearers for his machine speakers by inviting them to the Fair. This same Secretary and his crowd have recently said that no Populist in Robeson county was fit to be a poll holder at the coming election.

Populists, what do you think of such an Association?

A Reformer.

Maxton, N. C., Oct. 6, '94.

The "Pops" in Texas.

A. H. L. in Chicago Times.

Col. William Green Sterrett, of the Galveston Dallas News, received to-day from a Democratic constituent in Texas the following gloomy verse. It was in reply to a query as to what strength the third party was developing in Lone Star regions:

The Pops are doing well
In Texas.
The Pops charge round pell-mell
In Texas.
They're due to cut a swell,
Their numbers none can tell,
But they're surely raising ——,
In Texas.

Col. Sterrett says that he has read a great many affecting poems in his life, but confesses that none of them ever left him feeling so limp as this. It has embittered the autumn for him.

MARVELOUS RESULTS.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at J. R. Smith's, Mt. Olive, N. C., J. H. Hill & Son, Goldsboro, N. C., R. H. Holliday, Clinton, N. C., and all Druggists. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

AN ALLIANEMAN SLIPS UP.

But he got the Pass Word of the P. of P.

(Chicago Herald.)

This happened in a little town in Southern Illinois. It is in a section where the Farmers' Alliance is strong, and a lodge of that organization exists in the town. They meet Monday nights.

There is one lodge room in the town, and on Tuesday nights it is occupied by the local branch of the Knights of Pythias.

The president of one of the country sub-Alliances came to town one Tuesday. He had visited the town Alliance, and when he saw lights in the lodge room concluded he would go over and condole with the brethren over the defeat of Buchanan.

He gave the proper knock at the outer door. The wicket was raised and an ear was placed at it to hear the password:

"I plow, I hoe, I spade," whispered the Alliance man.

The ear was replaced by an eye, and it in turn gave place to a mouth, which whisperd in reply:

"The h—l you do!" and the wicket droppet with a bang.

The indignant farmer shortly afterward met a "brother," to whom he told his tale of woe.

"Why, dad blame it," was the sharp comment of the brother, "them's Knights of Pythias, and you've given 'em our pass-word."

"Dogged if I ain't," was the response, "but (bpightening up) durn 'em, I've got theirs."

A WEEK'S NEWS

GATHERED FROM EVERY QUARTER OF THE WORLD

And Briefly Told For the Readers of The Caucasian.

Nebraska Democrats Bolt.

The following nominations were made by the Nebraska Democratic convention held at Omaha. For Governor, Silas A. Holcomb, the Populist cand date, on the first ba-lot. With the exception of two, the nominees are the ones put up by the Populists. When Judge Holcomb, the Populist candidate, was named for Governor, the administration men bolted. The bolters numbered 104, and they at once organized into a separate convention and s lect d a ticket of goldbugs with a goldbug platform.

Fuller Acquited.

Edward J. Fuller charged with the murder of B. C. Parker at Fayetteville and who was tried there last March and convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged appealed to the Supreme Court for a new trial which was granted with change of venire to Richmond county court. The second trial resulted in a prompt acquital. We hear it often stated that courts never fail to meet out exact justice. We suppose the inconsistancy of decisions in this case may be looked over as "a slight error in the court."

Dr. Norman Succeeds Dr. Reid.

Rev. W. C. Norman of Wilmington has been chosen by the Greensboro Female College Association to succeed the late Rev. F. L. Reid as President of that institution. Dr. Norman is one of the ablest and most popular ministers of the Methodist church in the State and his election was doubtless a good selection.

Fayetteville Prisoners Blanketed the Jailer in Vain.

As the jailor at Fayetteville entered the jail at noon Tuesday of last week three colored prisoners threw blankets over his head and all went to the floor in a struggle. The jailor's pistol was discharged two or three times wounding his assailant in the foot. The negro was badly beaten over the head. There was no escapes.

Little Rock Cyclone.

Little Rock, Arkansas, has been visited by a terrible and destructive cyclone. A large portion of the business section of the city was left in ruins, and a large number of lives were lost. The damage to property done by the tornado reaches $1,00,-000.

George Mills, Convicted and Sentenced.

George Mills, the murderer of his neice, Ina Wimberly, whose case come off before the Superior court of Wake county last week was found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced by Judge Holt to be hanged November 30th.

A Blow up Damaged a Quarter of a city and 200 People Killed.

A terrible catastrophe occurred at the City of Panama last Monday. The military barracks were blown up and a whole quarter of the City was badly damaged. The number of dead is estimated at two hundred.

Oliver Holmes Dead.

The great poet whose wit and love endeared him to ever literary American and whose brilliant flashes are world renowned died last Sunday peacibly at his quiet cottage home in Massachusetts.

New York Democrats Bolt.

Democrat bolters from the State convention held at Saratoga have nominated a straight ticket of their own and denounce the convention held at Saratoga as being controled by mugwumps and rings, and unworthy of their support.

In Maine, Connecticutt, Georgia and other State elections held recently the Democrats were heavy loosers. The people do not take on to the idea of giving the "dear old party" another "chance," but have at last decided that one was one too many.

The Gulf States were visited by a terrific hurricane last Monday which did great damage to crops, washed up railroad tracks and cut off all communication. Only a rough estimate can so far be given of the damage and destruction done.

Hill has accepted the nomination for Governor of New York and Gaynor has declined the nomination for Associate Justice of the Court of Appeals. The latter has used his nomination for some very inferior advertising for the Democrats.

The quickest delivery of freight ever delivered between Chicago and Raleigh was accomplished last Monday. A car load of meat from Chicago to Raleigh was delivered in four days.

A. G. Curtin, the war Governor of Pennsylvania and afterwards Minister to Russia died at his home in Belle fonte last Sunday morning.

The Populists of the 26th Senatorial District have nominated S. W. Wall of Davidson and T. J. Kestner of Forsyth.

RANSOM AT PITTSBORO.

As a Vote Maker His Speech was More than a Failure---Democrats Disgusted and Populists Enthusiastic.

Pittsboro, N. C., Oct. 8, '94.

Senator Ransom addressed an audience of about 250 persons (including ladies, Democrats, Populists, and Republicans) at Pittsboro, Oct. 6th. He spoke about two hours and his remarks created but little enthusiasm. His speech was vulnerable in many instances and conspicuous for two things—the constant use of the expression "my countrymen, my countrymen!" and the almost entire absence of the word "silver." The General's speech was as disappointing to the Democrats as the size of the audience was to the General.

During his remarks on Coxey's army, his denunciations were so bitter and his arguments so vapory that one staunch Democrat who had a boquet for the General became so disgusted that he left the Court House, and on being asked his opinion of the speech said: "It was a damned sorry speech, and he never got my flowers either."

Judging from present political appearances, it seems as if it will be "my countrymen, my countrymen!" for the last time with Senator Ransom.

STROUD AND COOK.

Stroud has Scored a Great Victory for the Peoples Party at Every Appointment.—His Opponent would not Confine Himself to the Issues and the Giant of Reform took all the hide from the Cook.

Mr. Editor:—Messrs Stroud and Cooke, Congressional candidates in this, the 4th Congressional District, closed their joint canvass of this county, Johnston, at Benson to-night. I heard two of the discussions and, aside from all party feeling in the matter, I do not hesitate to say that Mr. Stroud scored a victory over Cooke each day. I have also heard the same report as to other discussions in the county. He asked Mr Cooke to give a reason why the Democratic party should exist another day after the record they had made in the 53rd Congress, in which they had violated every pledge they had made to the people. Cooke attempted to assign not a single reason.

Mr. Stroud enumerated some of those promises, as follows: They promised to reduce expenses. They increased them. They promised to reduce pensions. They increased them 8 million dollars. They promised tariff reform. They surrendered to Havemeyer. They promised to restore the Government to the people and then bowed to the trust and corporations. They promised free silver and gave the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman law. They promised Revenue reform and filled the woods with "red legged grass hoppers." They promised to be at their post and attend to the business of the country, and instead of doing so had to be arrested like criminals to make a quorum, for the transaction of business. They called Reed Czar, and adopted all his methods. Mr. Cooke did not attempt to reply but spent his one and a half hours indulging in wit, humor, ridicule, anecdotes, and some of them of questionable propriety, in the presence of ladies.

Mr. Cooke is an able debater as also an able lawyer, and would make a fine showing in a good cause, but he evidently has the appearance of an able lawyer appearing for a client he knows to be covered with guilt, and feels that the court and jury were conscious of the same. He evidently has an up hill business of it.

All we ask for is an honest vote and a fair count, and victory is ours.

A Drummer and an Old Farmer.

wool, lumber, and a large number of articles. Since that conversation the tariff bill has passed, and the writer wishes to call the attention of the farmers to one article, at least, that is now and has been on the free list for four years—hides of all kinds, except sheep skins with the wool on, have been on the free list, they were put on the free list the first day of October, 1890. From the 2nd day of March, 1881, to the 2nd day of October, 1890, all hides paid a duty of 5½ cents per pound. A farmer could carry a hide to market and buy with it three pairs of shoes for his family. Since they have been on the free list it takes four large sized hides to buy one pair of shoes.

The tariff bill of 1861 put wool on the duty list, and from that day to the present time the wool industry has been immense. The wool crop in the United States sold for over $130,000,000 in one year. The sheep owners paid $82,000,000 for labor. Under this free wool list the industry must go to nothing. The manufacturers now buy free wool from the farmers but they sell back to the farmers clothing and blankets that pay a high duty. The manufacturers ought to be pleased with this Democratic tariff.

The new tariff admits free all wools that have hitherto been imported from Buenos Ayres, Australia, New Zealand, Cape of Good Hope, Russia, Great Britain and Canada, together with the so-called long wools or combing wools; also all hair of the camel, goat, alapaca and other like animals, including Russian camels' hair, and such other wools of like character as have hitherto been imported from Turkey, Syria, Egypt, Greece, and elsewhere. Under the wool schedule no industry grew as did the wool industry. The present tariff bill kills this industry, and just as soon as the industry is killed out, it puts us at the mercy of the wool growers of the countries named, and we will have to pay for this wool in gold to foreigners. Where is the gold to come from?

Under this Democratic tariff bill the farmer has to go into a free trade market to sell his products, and into a highly protected market to buy the actual necessaries of life. Free raw materials means nothing more or less than robbing the farmer and laborer for the benefit of the manufacturer.

But as bad as low tariff is, it is nothing to compare to the money famine from which we are suffering. Put a plenty of money into circulation and make the tariff just as bad as you please and the poorest laborer and every other man who works will have money to pay his debts, educate his family and get along.

Hard times did not begin till the government began to contract the currency. The first blow was made at silver by the Goldbugs in 1873.

My farmer brother, it makes no difference to what political party you belong, we are all in the same boat. Mr. Merchant, what is your future? Railroad man what is your future? When the lands, the source of all wealth, go to waste, as they are bound to do under existing conditions, we cannot buy the merchant's goods, we cannot employ the lawyer, we cannot pay the preacher, we cannot send our children to school, we cannot pay the doctor.

You ask what brought about this state of affairs? The answer is plain. Corrupt legislation enacted by both of the old parties, legislation in favor of the few and against the many. But, one will say, we can get this relief through the Democratic party or the Republican party. Not so. We have tried them both, which is the worst? I think the last we tried, for corruption and fraud, is entitled to the cake. Say what you will and excuse as you may, and be as charitable as you can, the course of the 53d Congress can not be defended.

JOHN BRADY.

tion at Democratic headquarters. It looks now as if the majority may exceed 10,000, and this has been accomplished by the methods employed in Alabama, and by refusing the Populist party representation at the polls as election officers, as has been done in North Carolina.

A RECORD SMASHER.

This is the first time since 1870 that the Democratic majority has fallen below 40,000. It has ranged from 60,000 to 70,000. The most startling feature of the election, however, is the development of the fact that several Congressional districts show clean Populist majorities which may smash the solid Democratic delegation in November next. In the First, Second and Eleventh and Eighth Districts, where the Populists were hardly organized and where they did not run Legislative tickets the Democratic majorities of two years ago were reduced 50 per cent. The Tenth, Tom Watson's own district, gives a clean Populist majority. The Fourth, now represented by Charles J. Moses, is Populist also, and returns coming in from the Seventh indicate that that district will be likewise. Carter Tate's district, the Ninth, only missed being Populist by seven votes.

WHOLLY UNEXPECTED.

This news is a big surprise in Washington and Senator Ransoms visit here yesterday is more than a coincidence. The Georgia result increases the demand for election "boodle" in all the doubtful southern districts. This is a dazed look-about campaign headquarters to-day. "Where in the devil the money is to come from nobody can tell" said chairman Faulkner. Why, replied Lawrence Gardner, "the office-holders can stand more bleeding." The committee is in discress and is threatened with destruction. How much "soap" Senator Ransom carried off is not known outside, but Havemeyer Barnes says "it will last a little while—if not longer." It is the purpose of the committee to save Ransom at all expense and without regard to the loss of Democratic Congressmen. It is now conceded that the Democrats will and the loss of two or three Congressmen in North Carolina is not disturbing the "heavenly-twin" combination here. "Save the Legislature and save Ransom" is the slogan at headquarters. The Maine and Vermont State elections and the Connecticut town elections last week indicate a solid New England Republican representation in the next Congress. The Connecticut elections were particularly significant. The Republican gains were enormous, old Democratic strongholds giving majorities that have not been equaled since the war. The same causes are at work elsewhere and they will bring such overwhelming defeat to the Democratic party in November that American history will be searched in vain for a parallel.

WILL LOSE THE NEXT HOUSE

I have taken five or six bottles and feel confident that another course will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and stomach troubles. Yours truly,

PEOPLE'S PARTY HAND-BOOK.

These two Columns will be Used as a People's Party Hand Book Every Week Till the Election

Those "Awful" Federal Election Laws.

Pages 63 and 64 of the Hand Book is devoted to the "repeal of the Federal Election Law." We quote the following:

"The statute books have been burdened with odious and unconstitutional election laws for years—laws that gave to Federal Supervisors the right to challenge the vote of any citizen and to count and determine the votes that they saw fit to allow cast—laws that gave an officer of the army the power and discretion to use troops at the polls when in his opinion it became necessary.

"These vile laws have been repealed by the present administration. Below are given some of their provisions:

"Section 2007 declared that when the law of a State declared that a citizen should not vote, because he had not complied with the requirements of the State law, an officer of the Federal Government could step up and say he shall vote, and thus take out of the hands of the State the power to manage its own elections.

"In other words, an officer of the United States could challenge any voter he chose, and require him to give to him—the Supervisor of Elections—the necessary qualifications to vote.

"And if the Supervisor was not satisfied with it, and the citizen attempted to vote, then the Supervisor had the power to send after him a warrant and have him arrested at once.

"Section 2022 gave United States Marshals and their deputies the power to prevent a man from voting—mark you, not to challenge, not to leave it to the State Judge of Elections to say whether he has the right—but to determine whether the man had the right, and to prevent it.

"The election officers of the State said a certain citizen had the right to vote, but a Federal Supervisor said he had not, and he did not dare vote."

Not a single word of the above is true and the man who wrote it is either (in the language of Senator Vance) "a knave or fool" But no matter who wrote it, the Democratic State committee endorses and sends it out.

To prove that there is not a word of truth in the above, we quote the following from the law that has just been repealed:

"The Supervisors of Election appointed for any county or parish in any Congressional district, at the instance of ten citizens, as provided in section 2011, shall have no authority to make arrests, or to perform other duties than to be in the immediate presence of the officers holding the election, and to witness all their proceedings, including the counting of the votes and the making of a return thereof."

Notice carefully the wording of the law. It says plainly that the Supervisors had no power to do anything except simply to be in the "immediate presence" of the Judges of the election and to "witness all of their proceedings." And this is what made the law "vile" in the eyes of the Democratic machine. The Democratic Judges of Election under the State election law—the State Force bill—shut themselves up in a dark bull pen in the Eastern counties, so that no one can see their infamous theft and fraud. Therefore any law which would allow any man, who was not the hireling and tool of the machine, to be in their presence, their immediate presence and to watch all their proceedings, was a very "vile law."

Notice also that the Democrats in their Hand Book which we quote above, says that the Supervisors could challenge voters, could prevent any man from voting, could arrest any man and could count the returns as they saw fit. The law which we quoted above shows that this is a base falsehood. But we wish to brand this Democratic lie with Democratic autority. In 1892, Mr. Simmons, the chairman of the Democratic State Ex. Com., asked the Attorney General of the State, Hon. T. F. Davidson, for his official opinion as to the powers of the Federal Supervisors. In another column in this paper we publish the opinion of the Attorney General General under date of Oct. 31, 1892, in full. The following is the closing paragraph:

"I therefore am of the opinion that Supervisors in county and parish election districts have not the right, as such supervisors, to challenge voters, or to make lists of registered electors, or to scrutinize ballots or returns. In fact, they have no duties to perform with respect to registration, but simply to be "in the immediate presence of the officers holding the election and witness all their proceedings, including the countings of the votes and making the returns thereof."

Very truly yours,
(Signed) THEO. F. DAVIDSON,
Attorney General."

Mr. Simmons to be sure that he was backed by good authority was not satisfied with the opinion of the Attorney General but also applied to the law firm of Battle & Mordecai, and the firm of Batcheler & Devereux for their opinion. We publish in full in another column their opinions given Mr. Simmons under date of Nov. 2, 1892. The following is an extract:

"The law requires no duties of them (the Federal Supervisors), except to be in the immediate presence of the officers holding the election, and to witness all of their proceedings, including the counting of the votes and the making of a return thereof."

Can the voters of North Carolina trust a party that will thus deceive you wilfully falsify about important matters? Honesty is the best policy, but it is not the policy of the Democratic machine.

THE SPEAKING AT JORDAN'S STORE.

A Great Day for the People's Party.—Populists Jubilant Over the Result.

Editor CAUCASIAN:—On Thursday, Oct. 4th, 1894, at Barna Jordan's Store, Wayne county, N. C., there was a joint discussion between Hon. Marion Butler and ex-chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, Mr. F. M. Simmons.

Although it rained very heavy for one and a half hours from just before the hour for speaking, the crowd was 600 or 800 strong, and at 1:20 p. m. the exercise commenced actively by Mr. Simmons opening, in a very feeble plea for Democracy to have another chance and declared in that plea that the Democrats were for free coinage, (exhibiting five dollars of the coinage of 1894 in evidence of it), and that they had coined hundreds of thousands of dollars of it the past two months and that $50,000 of these new dollars were in a Raleigh bank there to pay farmers for their cotton.

He said the United States had 637 million of silver in circulation, more than any other country in the world had, and was to-day the greatest friend of silver. Mr. Simmons seems to be ignorant of the fact that France has 700 millions of silver in in circulation. If the United States has 637 millions of silver in circulation where did she get it? Prior to 1893 she only had about 200 millions in circulation If the other 437 millions have been coined from the silver bullion purchased under the Sherman act, then the Democrats are not in favor of free coinage only till the election, for by that time the balance will be exhansted and they can no longer coin silver, since they repealed the purchasing clause, which in effect repealed coinage of silver, except the bullion on hand; though he flatly denied the Democrats had repealed the coinage of silver. He thereby drew a distinction without a difference, the burden of which falls upon his own shoulders.

He said that the Tariff was the greatest question before the people, but when challenged by Mr. Butler to point out millionaires who had made them, by tariff, and Mr. Butler would name two for one who had made their millions by other bad legislation, Mr. Simmons craw-fished by saying he did not propose to go into it.

Mr. Simmons charged in his rejoinder, that as a majority of the crowd were Populist and cheered Mr. Butler so freely and so lustily, whereas he, Simmons, had only received about a half dozen slaps in applause, that Butler had selected a Populist stronghold, where he had the people so trained that all he had to do, to get all the applause he wanted, was to shake that head of long hair and give a sign.

Mr. Butler in his rejoinder rebuked Mr. Simmons for such assumption of ignorance of the audience he had come to speak to, in such terms that Mr. Simmons and his feeble plea for another chance, paled into insignificance under the well merited scathing rebuke of Mr. Butler and the applause of the people, that Mr. Simmons himself called time on Mr. Butler at the expiration of 13 minutes and just 18 minutes short of the time allotted each, and allowed Mr. Simmons. Mr. Butler yielded, remarking that his, Simmons', speech did not need any further replying to from him. To this I think a majority of the crowd readily agreed and thereupon dispersed and went home feeling rejoiced at Butler's long pole plucking all Simmons.

ABBOTT L. SWINSON.
Goldsboro, N. C.

N. B.—Mr. Simmons stated that the new tariff bill taxed diamonds, whereas they were free. That is true of diamonds, rough or uncut, taxed 10 per cent., but of diamonds, paste, pearls, rubies, cameos and other precious stones set as jewelry and cameos in frames, reduced from 50 to 35 per cent., a net reduction of 30 per cent. by Democrats. See. The Wilmington Star, one of the most prominent Democratic papers in the State, leaves out of its tariff list this paragraph, the largest one in the section. Why does it do this? Is it to cover Democratic perfidy? If so, the people should know it.

SLAVERY---BAD LEGISLATION.

The ause that Produces the Inevitable Result.

Slavery is the inevitable result of poverty; poverty is the inevitable result of low wages; low wages are the inevitable result of scarcity of currency and an improper system of taxation, and scarcity of currency and an improper system of taxation are logical results of an unjust administration of the government.—Beasley's Elements of Economy. Has Jarvis Surrendered?

and on his flank. Yet a majority of the Democrats, at heart, are with him. In Haywood county, where he speaks to-day, my information is that he is 3 to 1 stronger there than Ransom. But the Legislative candidates in the county are Ransom men.

RUMORS OF WITHDRAWAL.

It seems that Senator Jarvis was not entirely unprepared for this demonstration of opposition. He was advised of it, but accepted the reports as exaggerations. At Salisbury he was the guest of Mr. Lee S. Overman—a Western candidate for the Senate. At Statesville where Judge Armfield is also a candidate here was a show of approval. At Lenoir his audience was small, and composed mainly of Republicans and Populists. At Asheville he was hardly treated with common decency until the whispered possibility of his withdrawal from the fight became a street rumor.

ITS EMINATION

was difficult to discover. At revenue headquarters, a common political centre, information was given out in nods and winks and nudges. One of the revenue coterie said the Ransom managers would not be surprised at some announcement of that sort very soon. "There is nothing definite," he said, "and we are not in a position to talk about it. It may be so and it may not be so. By this time Senator Jarvis must see that the sentiment in the West is solid for Ransom." It was then suggested that the

EAST MIGHT KICK

against the West's dictation in this matter. "Not when the caucus meets," was the reply." If the East is honestly for Jarvis and the West attempts to ignore that sentiment and force Ransom on the party, might not the Eastern Democrats repeat the Merriman bolt?" was suggested. "No possibility of such a thing," was the emphatic answer. Western Democratics will go into the caucus with a demand for Ransom's nomination. That demand they intend to enforce with the COUNTY GOVERNMENT CLUB.

It has been used effectually hitherto in compelling concessions in railroad legislation and it will be used again. Eastern Democrats will be given the option of voting for a John Sherman, single gold standard Democrat or submit to the repeal of the county government system. Political power in the State is west of Raleigh. About the county government question the Western counties do not care a "tinker's dam." Democrats here openly say so. Their preference is decidedly for a change The election of county commissioners by magistrates is obnoxious to nearly all Western Democrats, but so long as it can be used as a club to compel Eastern submission it will stand as the State policy of the Democratic party.

IF EASTERN DEMOCRATS

entertain the slightest doubt as to the perfect accuracy and fairness of this statement, a brief visit here would quickly undeceive them. The revenue machine is despotic in its administration of politics. The Collector is a little Czar. He makes and unmakes candidates. He nominates his brother on the Judicial ticket and dictates the Legislative candidates in the different counties in his revenue district. If Eastern Democrats can escape this Western autocracy except by open revolt, it would be interesting to know the method. Until that is done they are muzzled and manacled.

TESTIMONIALS.

Goldsboro, N. C., Sept. 8, '94.

We, the undersigned citizens, most cheerfully recommend our Home Comfort Steel Range, which are undoubtedly the most durable stoves that have ever been sold here. They are models of neatness and conveniences, use very little fuel, draw splendidly, heat quickly, but throw out very little heat in the room; supply an abundance of hot water, and are the quickest and most perfect bakers we ever saw.

Bennettsville, S. C.,
December 1, '93.

We, the undersigned citizens of Marlboro county, each bought one of the Wrought Iron Ranges sold here ten years ago, and have just replaced them with a New Home Comfort Steel Range, which from their construction and the material used, we feel confident will last three times as long as the old ones, and besides they have many more conveniences:

Thos. Adams, W. B. Odom, Peter T. Smith, George Ballard, S. R. Barrington, Mrs. Lucy Goodwin, A. B. Covington, J. H. Smith, Harris Odom, Eli Chavis, King Odom, Eliab Cnavis.

We are using a Home Comfort Steel Range and find it to be all that is claimed for it by its salesmen. It bakes perfectly, require less wood, and does everything in a more satisfactory manner than any range or stove we have ever seen. We think it well worth the price paid for it.

WALTER CLARK, ASSOCIATE JUSTICE.
RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 26, 1894.
We have found the Electropoise very valuable—especially for children. I got one last May, and I am sure I have saved three times its cost already in doctors' and drug store bills. From my experience with it, and observation, I can safely recommend it.
Yours truly,
WALTER CLARK.
